

TOWN OF SEVASTOPOL
Door County, Wisconsin

Resolution No. 02 - 2011 TB
Authorizing Parks & Recreation Board to Sell Fermented Malt Beverages

WHEREAS, the Town Board of the Town of Sevastopol ("Town Board") has previously issued on a regular basis a seasonal Class "B" license to allow the Sevastopol Parks & Recreation Board to sell fermented malt beverages (beer) from the concession stand at the Institute Town Park; and

WHEREAS, the Town Board has determined that it wants to continue to allow municipal sales of fermented malt beverages at said park; and

WHEREAS, Wisconsin Statutes, sec. 125.06(6), allows the officers or employees of a municipality to sell beer at any public park operated by said municipality, without a license or permit if it is so authorized by an ordinance, resolution, rule or regulation enacted by the governing body; and

WHEREAS, the Parks & Recreation Board has requested that the Town Board enact such an ordinance, resolution, rule or regulation;

NOW, THEREFORE, be it resolved that town officers, including such officers as appointed to the Parks & Recreation Board, and town employees are hereby authorized to conduct sales of beer at the Institute Town Park, pursuant to Wis. Stats., sec. 125.06(6), without the requirement of a license or permit, subject to all other applicable provisions of Chapter 125 of the Wisconsin Statutes.

The foregoing resolution was adopted this 18th day of April, 2011.
